Library Book Endowments

A unique way to honor and remember special people.

ere is your opportunity to preserve the memory of a special person or to honor someone you admire while giving enjoyment to others. A gift to the Rochester Hills

Public Library's collection is one of the most satisfying ways of insuring that your gift will live, will be cared for, and will continue to be used.

It can reflect the taste of the giver or, in the case of memorials, of the individual in whose memory it is given. Moreover, it provides an excellent way for an organization to help the community with books or materials in the field in which it is especially interested.

"Books and libraries and the will to use them are among the most important tools our nation has to diffuse knowledge and to develop our powers of creative wisdom."

President John F. Kennedy

Give a gift to the Library:

- ☞ For a special occasion
- ☞ To honor a relative or friend's birthday, anniversary or other event
- ☞ In memory of someone special
- ☞ As a "thank you" gift for your enjoyment in using the Library

Many types of gifts are needed:

- ☞ A gift of just $25 will purchase a book, audiovisual material, magazine subscription, or other item.
- ☞ Establish a memorial fund in memory of someone special.
- ☞ Make a bequest in your will.
- ☞ Help build the Library's Endowment Fund to provide interest monies to develop the materials collections.
- ☞ Double your gift if your employer offers a matching gift program.

Your gift will be acknowledged.

- ☞ A bookplate will be placed in each book giving the name of the person in whose honor or memory the book is given and the name of the donor.
