“Rochester Junior Woman’s Club Looking for Donation Recipients”

Rochester, MI February 12, 2010 -- Rochester Junior Woman’s Club (RJWC) is seeking a non-profit organization that is in need of assistance and can benefit from their fundraising efforts during the 2010-2011 season.

RJWC has been serving the community since 1956. It is a service organization involved in promoting education, preserving natural resources, working on behalf of the elderly, children and families in need and supporting and participating in the arts.

The club holds two or three major fundraisers a year. The “Lobster Boil” held the last Saturday in September and other events such as a wine tasting, auction or shopping boutique in the spring.

Proceeds from the past events have been given to South Oakland Shelter, Rochester Hills Museum at Van Hoosen Farm, Meadow Brook Hall Garden Club, OPC, Paint Creek Center for the Arts, Rochester Neighborhood House, Habitat for Humanity, The Rochester Community House, Avon Players Theatre, Dinosaur Hill Nature Preserve, Band of Angels, Meadow Brook Center for Learning Differences, Meadow Brook Hall, The Heritage Festival and Paint a Miracle, Rochester Area Neighborhood House, Rainbow Connection and many other worthy organization.

The 2009-2010 fundraisers will support Rochester Area Neighborhood House and Meadow Brook Theatre.

If your organization is in need of assistance, please visit our website for the form www.rhpl.org/rjwc/ and click on the events tab and email to Toni Wiley at wiley441@sbcglobal.net or send a letter of request along with detailed information on your organization to RJWC Attn: Toni Wiley P O Box 80743 Rochester MI 48307. Please have all requests submitted by March 31st. If you have any further questions, you may contact Toni at 248 375 1910.

For more information about the club, membership, or orientation meetings please contact Linda Dill at 248-321-4493 or misstweeti@att.net. You can also visit their website at www.rhpl.org/rjwc/
