The 13th Annual Lobster Boil
“You Plan the Party, The Rochester Junior Woman’s Club Will Cook”

Rochester, MI August 16, 2011 --The Rochester Junior Woman’s Club is preparing for its 13th annual Lobster Boil on Saturday, September 24th.

Live New England lobsters are flown in fresh early Saturday morning. Each Lobster is between 1 and 1 ¼ pounds each. Members of RJWC will cook the lobsters on-site at the Older Persons’ Commission located at 650 Letica in Rochester. Proceeds from this year’s Lobster Boil will benefit the OPC and other local charities.

It’s a great way to entertain friends and family or enjoy a quiet dinner for two. You choose the pick-up time; your dinner will be on time and ready! RJWC will cook, wrap, and have them hot and ready for you at the OPC drive-thru site. The lobsters will stay HOT for up to 2 hours in the packaging.

Just pre-order your desired amount of lobsters, drive up to the OPC at your reserved time and your lobsters will be given to you! “You don’t even have to get out of the car,” said Katie Kamman, co-chair of this year’s Lobster Boil. Kamman is co-chairing the event with member Nicole Maiga.

Orders will be taken through September 16th for both live and cooked lobsters. If you prefer to order your lobsters live, please bring a container to transport them home. The lobsters are $18.00 each. Buy a bakers dozen and get the 13th free!

If you would like to order your lobsters today, or if you have any questions, please contact Monique at (248) 652-4845 or email at manthus2@comcast.net or Linda at (248) 321-4493 or email at misstweeti@att.net. You can also print out a Lobster Boil order form on the events page at www.rhpl.org/rjwc/.
