

The Friends of the Rochester Hills Public Library invite you to attend a tour of the Pontiac Transportation Museum in Pontiac, Michigan, on Saturday, September 27th at 11:30 am. All proceeds will benefit Library programs.

Pontiac, like other cities in Michigan, has a rich history of being involved in the automobile industry and other modes of transportation. In the words of the museum, "This museum profiles the enormous and fascinating legacy Pontiac has in cars, trucks, and carriages, as well as how the social history of this community interacted with the wheeled vehicle industry." Come join us to learn all the ways that Pontiac has helped us with our transportation needs. The tour will take about 90 minutes and the museum is handicap accessible.

Tour participants will meet at 250 W Pike St, Pontiac, MI 48341.

Date: Saturday, September 27, 2025
Time: 11:30 am
